

I have been forced to listen to local radio for news, weather and traffic for my morning and afternoon drive time for 30 years and never once did they do a good job. If the local stations would do a good job with this, then we wouldn't need XM radio. The truth is XM radio is doing the job the local stations have been unable to do. As a result, we need to keep local Traffic and Weather on XM Radio.